

Diotec offers replacements for obsolete "low power" rectifiers by Semikron

Semikron has discontinued a wide range of its "low power" rectifier devices. Diotec offers a direct replacement for many of these devices, allowing users to continue their production utilizing the same part names and minimal redesign efforts.

The enclosed list shows mostly all of the affected parts ¹⁾.

If you did not find the specific part you were looking for listed, please contact your local Diotec Sales representative:
